

Green Means Go, and Other Reasons Why I Hate You

Ethan Kaye writes funny things. Hes extremely snarky, deep, clever, bitter, creative, verbose, and entirely bizarre. And he writes things that will make you laugh until you choke. But on a normal day, you wont read them. Why? Because the internet is a big, scary place, like a college gymnasium or a really deep hole where its dark and things touch you. If you dont go to the right places, youll miss out. So, in an attempt to garner more Twitter followers, Ethan has collected some of his offbeat essays, letters, musings, stories, and journals into one conveniently readable package: Green Means Go, and Other Reasons Why I Hate You. Green Means Go assembles aliens, vampires, Peter Graves, sports mascots, tax prep Uncle Sam, and tick people into one completely unique collection of work. Its eclectic. Its emotional. Its irreverent. Ideally, those are three qualities that should sell a book, right?
