

Fierce Joy

Bone Cancer, Amputation, Kidney Failure. Any one of these would dishearten the average person. Marsha Therese Danzig, M.ed Harvard, has dealt with all of these and more, along with the side effects of serious illness for most of her life. From receiving last rights at the age of five , to thriving as an inspirational speaker, her story can break through any belief that JOY isnt possible. Fierce Joy shows the reader that JOY is not only possible but attainable.
