

By The Gun: A True Testimony Of How Choices Intertwine With Fate

Society bestowed upon the police, the job of enforcing our nations rights against wrongs. But when those same police target a specific race and set out to do them more harm than good... who will assist that race in over coming the woes they are experiencing, due to corrupt men working in a field that is supposed to ensure correction? Porshae and VG are two young men who are about to experience that corruption first-hand. In their world of hopes, dreams and securities, they will realize, theyll need more than just influential friends and feared street Gangsters to get them out of the predicament theyre about to find themselves in. The chain of events that take place in this story, are based on the truth and a person can conclude two things... God works in mysterious ways (only) because some of us know not of them... And in all of Gods work, His plans set out to help the good defeat the evil, in the most righteous way possible, using us as His hands to execute His Plans... ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Out of 36 years Ive been on this earth, 22 of those years have been spent experiencing the highs and lows of the street life. Born and raised in Flint Michigan, I quickly adapted to the life of a drug dealer. I traveled to different states in-pursuit of lower drugs prices and more clientele. In Saint Louis Missouri, I was arrested for trafficking and distribution of a large amount of marijuana. While serving my time in the Missouri Department of Corrections, I did a lot of self-improving. In that self-improving process, after spending almost a decade in prison... I realized hustling in the streets was not worth spending anymore of my precious time in prison.. I came to the understanding that I had to do something different when I returned to the free world. While in prison, I wrote music and poetry the entire time, though during the last 8 months of my sentence... I began writing my first book By The Gun based on a true story. I was released from the Missouri Department of Corrections on April 12th, 2012 and I paroled to Oakland California, with my Mom who has been a huge support in my new found interest in book and movie-script writing. I am currently living in Oakland and working on turning my book By The Gun into a movie-script and my second novel Black & Blue Bay.
