

A Journey of Faith

At the young age of twenty, he was forced to tear a foreign nation apart, yet he bravely embraced his patriotic duty in the United States Navy. Ten years later, Claude found himself, with his family beside him, on the shores of that same nation, with the daunting responsibility of building them up using a message of hope in Jesus Christ. This book will encourage you to grow in your faith, challenge you to step out of your comfort zone, and will bring tears to your eyes as you walk beside this pioneer missionary family miles from the comforts of home. You will experience not only their triumphs and accomplishments but also the searing pain of the loss of two dear children. Your senses will be captivated as they describe in detail their life in Japan, then follow them home as they continue and conclude their Journey of Faith.
