

A Zigzag Path (Isis Nonfiction)

Elizabeth Bowtells childhood was full of simple pleasures, rummaging through sea-shore rock pools with other carefree children, strolling through flower-carpeted meadows and walking down the narrow alleys of Cornish fishing ports. Her tale begins and ends in Padstow, but the zigzag path shes followed through life led her through the Blitz, to RAF Bomber Stations, Military Intelligence and to Europe, soon after the guns fell silent. With tears and laughter, Elizabeth reflects on her lifes joys and hardships, her discovery of love and her patriotic duty and loyalty.
