

Icon Diary

Icon Diary is a collection of daily memories, each captured in writing and in a simple illustration. Some of the memories are of an experience shared by many people, like Election Day. Others are smaller and more personal, like falling off a bike or going to a meeting. True to life, most of them are quite mundane. Throughout the diary, Bergers goal is not to make her life seem more interesting than it is, but to use the visual language of icons to tell her own small stories.
