

Homework Heroes, Grades K-2: Its a Bird! Its a Plane! Its Done!

Overwhelmed by the daily demands that homework places on your child, your family...and you? Homework Heroes can help. This user-friendly guide takes a unique approach to homework, addressing both the psychological and the practical issues involved in creating a successful, more positive homework experience for everyone. The introduction, by nationally recognized learning specialist Priscilla L. Vail, M.A.T., addresses twenty important homework questions for you to consider, including: * Do you and your child have a homework pact? * Do your child's study skills and learning skills match the assigned tasks? * Do your child's developmental and language levels match the assigned tasks? Homework Heroes is also a quick reference tool that you can use to help explain important grade school math, English, science, and social studies concepts to your child. This instant review covers a variety of topics, including: * Adding and subtracting with regrouping * Diphthongs, digraphs, and syllables * Properties of matter * Citizenship Also includes: * Examples of the types of questions your child might receive on homework assignments and tips on how to help your child find the correct answer * Homework Heroes sidebars with activities to help your child build essential skills
