

Campus Visits 101

Are you getting ready to set out on a college campus search? Does your son or daughter have a list of schools they want to explore? If this is your first child to do a college search, this can be a very anxious and stressful time in your families life. Also, if you have done the college search process before, there are things you may not have thought of before. In my book I lay out step by step on the dos and donts of college campus visits. After reading and digesting the material, you will be ready to make the most informative, fun and stress-free visits to any school you visit.
