

Memoir of the Life and Correspondence of John Lord Teignmouth, Vol. 1 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Memoir of the Life and Correspondence of John Lord Teignmouth, Vol. 1 The publication of a Memoir of the Life and Correspondence of the late Lord Teignmouth will not excite the surprise of those who appreciate alike the merit of his public conduct in the service of the East-India Company, or as President of the British and Foreign Bible Society, and the excellence of his private character. The author, whilst satisfied that the subject-matter of such a work furnishes sufficient justification of its being undertaken, is bound to state the motives which have induced him to enter upon it, notwithstanding certain disadvantages which may possibly arise from his relationship to the individual to whom it refers. The value of Biography depends much on the authors interest in the history and character of its subject. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy. In rare cases, an imperfection in the original, such as a blemish or missing page, may be replicated in our edition. We do, however, repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully; any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works.
