

Praise! Our Songs and Hymns: New International Version Responsive Readings

In this incredible and moving memoir, a mother tells of her fight for justice to convict her daughters murderer for a crime that he thought could never be punished. When her 22-year-old daughter, Julie, went missing in the night, Ann Ming was certain she had been murdered. Liaising with the police, looking after Julies beloved three-year-old son, Ann waited desperately for news. Three months later she found her childs decomposing body behind a bath panel. A violent local man, Billy Dunlop, was tried for her murder but a series of blunders allowed him to walk free. Knowing he could not be tried again under the law of Double Jeopardy, he callously bragged about his perfect crime. But Dunlop had not reckoned on Ann Ming! This is the extraordinary story of a fight for justice which she never gave up. A moving account of courage and determination, showing how much a mothers love can achieve.
