

Death Spiral, a Susanna Sloane Novel

S. G. Kiner's Death Spiral brings back the irrepressible Susanna Sloane and this time Susanna is acting attorney for a client whose company is the victim of death spiral financing—the practice whereby a lender can seize control of a company. Susanna files suit against the corporate financial giant, Lionhart Advisors with the help of a former lover, Roger Howell. Howell is the Secretary of Treasury and puts Susanna in touch with the powers that be in D.C. Soon, Susanna finds herself in a major position of power—a vacancy on the Securities and Exchange Commission that will evaluate whether death spiral financing will be outlawed. Susanna resumes her affair with Howell and meanwhile, her current lover is in bed (politically) with the very corporation that she's fighting! Susanna then takes on powerful forces in China and Venezuela; some of whom she has had more than familiar relationships with, and quickly finds herself in more trouble than she bargained for. Murder, mayhem, shady political coups and an ex-husband surfacing while trying to plan a wedding to another, has Susanna in well over her head. Will she survive and which lover will prove to be the man that can handle this spunky and strong woman? Kiner's feisty heroine is back and better than ever. Kiner deftly builds suspense with solid, lively storytelling while presenting fresh and fascinating characters and an engrossing plotline. AUTHOR BIO: ABOUT THE AUTHOR—S.G. Kiner is a fulltime writer and grandmother of three. Mrs. Kiner is currently finishing up her third Susanna Sloane book. She lives with her husband in Palm Beach, Florida.
