

Champagne: The Farewell: A Vengeance in the Vineyard Mystery (A Vengeance in the Vineyard Mysteries)

NYPD detective Max Maguire flies to France to attend her friend Chloe Marceaus wedding. She meets the older and more urbane Olivier Chaumont, a juge d'instruction, or examining magistrate, and experiences a fairy tale evening. But when Chloes widowed aunt is found murdered after the wedding dinner, Max and Olivier are shocked back into their respective professional roles. But to Maxs chagrin, Olivier is put in charge of the investigation and she is banned from an official investigative role. The value of vineyards and champagne companies is at an all-time high, and Olivier learns that there are several people attempting to gain control of Leas business at the time of her death. Max, quietly using the sleuthing skills inherited from her famous detective dad, she insinuates herself into the victims family until their long-held secrets begin to spill out like marbles from an overturned dish. After another family member is found dead on the day of Leas funeral, however, Max puts her career, and her tentative relationship with Olivier, in jeopardy as her determination to find the murderer and prove herself in the process takes over.
