

Adventure Guide Bermuda (Adventure Guides Series) (Adventure Guide to Bermuda)

This fascinating archipelago sits isolated in the Atlantic Ocean some 750 miles off the coast of Cape Hatteras, North Carolina, but it is often considered a Caribbean destination. Its 150 islands and islets trimmed by pink sand beaches evoke a feeling of tranquility found nowhere else in this world. Still retaining many British customs, Bermuda is steeped in history. See places visited by the first settlers, explore British forts, and wander through outlying villages that date back to the era of slavery. With an emphasis on outdoor adventures - hiking, scuba diving, golfing, fishing, snorkeling, swimming - Blair Howard opens your eyes to the best of Bermuda. An extensive underwater section profiles the top dive spots and shipwrecks, with contact names and numbers of local operators. Sightseeing and walking tours round out this unique guidebook.
