

Life of Gen. Ben Harrison and Life of Hon. Levi P. Morton

I believe this is a true 1st/1st of the Civil War General Wallace, most famous, of course for writing Ben Hur. Front and back cover s would list as very good, with some corner wer to these heavy, fine boards. The spine has serious scuffs at the top and bottom, but they are superficial, from shelving. Pages are free of markings. Overall it is fair/good shape, a little above fair or acceptable. The gold plating looks great on the front but has faded on spine. Binding of pages tight but starting to pull away a little inside the covers. No tears, nothing missing. Nice clean book. Great 1888 book My favorite part is the last 50 of the 578 pages is an almanac profiling the different voting rights laws in different states, voter participation, the national debt year by year to the penny, etc. Second Book is by Levi Morton, both in one volume.
