

A Lesson in Positive Anticounterprophecistentialism: Part Three of an Almost Completely True Fairy Tale (A Story Never to Be Told Book 3)

Part Three of A Story Never to Be Told that began with a botched experiment in Advanced Computers&Games which propelled Pim Pergamon to Left World. Finally in Star Central where the gate back to London is, Pim promptly falls in love with lovely Andine, Dr. Schlossen-Bosens daughter. The capital of Left World has remained unscathed so far, but it is paralysed by fear of the imminent final attack of Rector Cinerum whose true identity remains unknown. Homeless, hopeless and in hiding, Tims friends realize there is no future for them in Left World and entreat him to take them to Right World. Administrative Fairies, wandering kolkhozniks on the quest from the Politburo to find the Never-Ending Sentence and footnotes escaped from a library now work in Left World together with Edna Edwards, Barney the pacman and a bunch of teenagers in Right World to stop the Hordes of Destruction and the final takeover of imagination.
